by WALTER M. BARRETT

The first of the week of the fishing season added further evidence that Truckee is truly the Mecca for fishermen. The discovery that Boca reservoir is alive with rainbow added new emphasis to our contention that no where can the sportsmen find a more desirable location for fishing and relaxation. It is one thing to have excellent fishing and another thing to keep it. It is the latter which should most concern us and we should give serious consideration to maintaining and building our trout supply. It is not a problem alone for the sportsmen of the district but for every future-thinking businessman and resident. It would not take a lot to deprive us of our greatest asset, so it certainly behooves us to keep always alert to that possibility and prepare for the coming years. We can do this by a program of protection and propogation. We have the wholehearted support of outside organizations including the state fish and game commission and they ask only that we here in Truckee and at Lake Tahoe take steps to protect what they provide.

Your chamber of commerce meets next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the Bank of America. The most important issue to be discussed at that time will be the question of the forthcoming election on incorporation. Your chamber is vitally interested in the issue and is interested in your attitude toward the question. A representative turnout is expected.

We believe in incorporation because we have seen what can be accomplished under a plan of self-government. We believe that Truckee can become even a better town through incorporation than it is today. We believe that we are being deprived of the advantages and opportunities which only cooperation can provide. If we have faith in our community we should band together for mutual benefits.

Tomorrow night the Knights of Pythias will observe their 62nd anniversary in Truckee. That's a pretty good record for any lodge and when you take into consideration the way the Knights have continued to grow through the years, it is easy to offer hearty congratulations on their anniversary. They are inviting everyone to attend the Roll Call meeting tomorrow night in observance of the occasion.

Don't forget your high school play on May 16. It will be a lot of fun and you can show your good will toward the school by packing the hall.

Fishing Exceptional In Nearby Waters is Report

The Truckee River and other nearby streams and lakes have been virtually deserted during the past few days as hundreds of fishermen flock to Boca reservoir, where bait fishing from boats and the shore has brought expressed fears that "it can not last long at that rate."

The reservoir is apparently alive with trout, most of them large rainbows which may have come from Independence Lake when the lake was practically drained to permit work by the Sierra Pacific Power Company. Others are trout from the Little Truckee which have spawned in the upper reaches and then returned to the reservoir.

Scores of limits have been taken daily with nearly any kind of bait serving to lure the fish.

While Boca offers perhaps the fastest fishing in the district, good catches are reported from the Truckee River and other streams by those who prefer fishing to catching limits Several weight limits have been taken from the Truckee.

The first week of fishing was excellent despite the weather which has been a bit too chilly and damp for a good outing.

Nominating Committee is Named at Lions Meeting

The nominating committee to suggest officers for the coming year was named by President W. M. Englehart, Jr., of the Truckee Lions Club last night. They include Ben Tonini, C. Edmunds, A. P. Leitch, F. W. Gaiennie and R. L. Gregory. The officers will be nominated at the next meeting. The meeting was held last night at the Donner Hotel.

Plans for the forthcoming Sixth District Executive meeting to be held in Truckee May 25 were made and the executive committee, plus H. O. Anderson, was named to have charge of the affair. It is expected, according to word from District Commander Harry French of Florin that between 150 and 200 Legionnaires and Auxiliary members will attend the meeting.

The post has tentatively accepted the offer of John Ciardelli of the Capitol to have an Italian dinned in the new club rooms on the night of May 25 for the visitors.

P. T. A. PROGRESS IS SUBJECT OF REPORT BY MRS. G. HOCKER

Mrs. Gaston Hocker submitted a list of work projects and accomplishments of the Truckee Union Parents and Teachers Association for the past year, verifying the fact that the group has taken an active interest in children's welfare in this community. The list follows:

Pre-school clinic by Dr. Banks of Sacramento who was assisted by Mrs. Marion Newberry, the Nevada county nurse, and local mothers last spring.

Summer round-up. Recreational work in form of picnics and outings for mothers and children once a week.

Dental clinic given last fall with the cooperation of Dr. W. D. Teeple who was assisted by the mothers.

Small pox vaccinations were given last fall by Dr. J. H. Bernard, assisted by the county nurse.

Dr. Bernard also gave tuberculosis tests last spring with the assistance of the county nurse.

The hot lunch project was supported with mothers cooperating. Surplus food stuffs were used to advantage.

A follow up on the pre-school clinic was held this spring to check for improvement in the children's health.

The Christmas party, an annual affair to which all local organizations subscribe, was held and pronounced a success by the citizens of Truckee.

Military Diplomat Will Speak at Tahoe School

TAHOE CITY, May 8.— Major Arthur Mason, former naval attache in London, will be he main speaker at a special meeting to be held in the Tahoe high school Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The major recently returned from England and will have an important message.

The high school students will go to Sacramento Monday to visit the legislature. The trip scheduled for Friday was postponed because of Major Mason's talk.

Fish Stories Galore Come In With '41 Trout Season

The fishing is good in Boca reservoir, but there are still those that doubt Bert Weeden's story, despite the fact he had four witnesses to verify the tale that an 11-inch rainbow leaped into his boat Friday afternoon.

Weeden was fishing from his boat, felt a nibble and gave the line a jerk. The fish freed itself and the line slackened at about the same time the trout leaped ovre the side of the boat and landed at the fisherman's feet.

Paul Losey, Stan Gregory and Jim Shearer all witnessed the unusual catch. There are few spots left where claims can be made of such good fishing.

Still another good story was Bob Tonini's. Bob made a cast into the river and when he pulled in his line, he found an entire outfit, rod, reel, line and even a baited hook at his feet! Various reasons have been advanced for someone casting away an entire outfit.

County Officials Raked Over Coals in Report

Three Nevada County officers were admonished in the annual certified public accountant's report on Nevada County filed jointly last week with a partial report by the county Grand Jury.

Those criticized were Sheriff Carl Tobiassen, Coroner A. M. Holmes and District Attorney Vernon Stoll.

The sheriff was criticized because his "fees of record" are very negligible and a deficiency of $6.50 was noted.

Holmes was accused of charging a fee of $10 on each of his investigations. There were no funds or property of record in the hands of the coroner belonging to indigents, etc. It was also charged that Holmes collected claims totalling $705 for burial of indigents. The report claims that this is a violation of the law.

The district attorney was criticized for his failure to vouchers in withdrawing his $2500 special fund.

Date Fixed For Incorporation Election Here

May 27th is Set As Day For Balloting On Issue

BOARD IS NAMED

Five Councilmen Will Be Voted On With Officers

Truckee voters Tuesday, May 27, will be called upon to decide the most important communtiy question which has arisen in recent years when they ballot upon the question of whether or not the district shall be incorporated.

At the same time the voters will ballot on five members of a city council, a city clerk and a city treasurer. No candidates have been announced to date.

The many advantages to be gained through incorporation under our present governmental system have been repeated many times. Allocations of taxes, licenses and other government moneys are made only to political subdivisions and Truckee, as a community, is not at present entitled to more than is allocated in cases to unincorporated areas. Unincorporated areas are not entitled to self government.

At a hearing before the board of supervisors on May 2, no protests were filed against the boundaries as outlined and the board accepted the petition and ordered the notice of election published. It will be found elsewhere in the Sierra Sun today.

The election will be held at the Truckee Grammar School from 6 A. M. to 7 P. M. and the election board will consist of W. H. Laity, H. O. Oliver, Marie A. Cabona and Laura Gaiennie.

Voters must reside within the boundaries of the proposed area to be incorporated and their names appear in the Great Register.

If incorporated, the town will be known as "The City of Truckee" and will become a city of the sixth class to be governed by state laws relating to that type of city.

Any information required relative to the election, the proposed incorporation, its aims and purposes will be answered by C. B. White, chairman of the committee in charge.

Kings Beach Mothers to Sponsor Dance Saturday

KINGS BEACH, May 8.— The Mother's Club is giving a Pre-Mothers Day Dance on Saturday, May 10, at the school. A small admission charge will be made and free refreshments are to be served.

The business portion of last week's meeting was spent in discussion of the dance and various committees were appointed. Members are striving to make the dance a huge success as it will be the last dance of the season. One of the members, Mrs. Dorothy English, left Sunday on a motor trip to Chicago so a substitute was appointed to take her place as secretary.

Secret pals were selected by the members, their identity to be disclosed a year hence.

The members were served delicious refreshments by the hostesses of the evening at the close of the meeting.

Rotarians Hold Meeting At Norden Ski Lodge

The Truckee-Tahoe Rotary Club met at the Norden Store and Ski Lodge for their weekly meeting on Monday night with President Theodore Schleuter presiding. The program was occupied with a Rotary Quiz contest.

Guests included Walter Carlson, president of the Nevada City club, Frank Nease and Mr. Robb of Truckee and Mr. Racer of Stockton. New members admitted into the club were Charles VanEvera of Soda Springs, William Strickland of Vaderford and C. R. Arment of Tahoe.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS ON INCORPORATION

* * * * *

The question has been asked as to whether or not taxes under an incorporated form of government would be prohibitive. Such matters are regulated by the state laws governing corporations. Section 862.11 of the state code reads in part:

"To levy and collect annually a property tax, which shall not, without the assent of two-thirds of the qualified electors of such city voting at an election to be held for that purpose exceed one dollar on each one hundred dollars."

Another question which has arisen is what a city might anticipate from state or federal funds which as an unincorporated area we are not at present receiving. The California League of Municipalities has the following answer:

"On the question of revenue returned to a city by some other governmental unit, may I say that you would receive money from the gasoline tax, revenue from liquor licenses and a portion of the 'in lieu' tax on automobiles. As you know, this last source of revenue has taken the place of the personal property tax that was previously levied by your local city and county tax collecting agencies. Both the gasoline tax and the 'in lieu' tax are allocated on the basis of population. Assuming the number of people affected by incorporation in Truckee is estimated at 1000, you would receive approximately $1600 a year from the two quarter-cents of the gas tax revenue. The 'in lieu' tax amounts to a return of approximately sixty-cents per capita, or around $600 a year. Liquor license fees returned to a city are allocated on the basis of 50 per cent of all fees collected within the city for on-sale and off-sale license issued in the incorporated area."

This latter would be about $2200 every year.

It is difficult to estimate the return from fines from the city court, although at present Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith is sending from $100 to $600 per month to the county treasury. City fines would have no bearing on justice court fees, but is likely that they would approximate a third of the above sums.

Other sources of revenue could include a license on peddlers, carnivals and other individuals who are now tax-free to ply their trade in Truckee unmolested and in direct competition to locally owned and operated establishments.

More questions will be answered from time to time in the columns of this newspaper. Direct any questions to C. B. White, chairman of the committee in charge or to this paper

MOTHER'S DAY

Next Sunday is a day to remember. It is Mother's Day. It is an occasion which many, of course, will pass by with a shrug of the shoulders. Closing their hearts and minds to its real meaning, these will be the ones who will call it "sentmental stuff" and let it go at that.

Admittedly, Mother's Day is a day of sentiment, but is it any the less worth honoring because of that? It was sentiment, self-sacrificing devotion and sympathy that one time, years ago, were lavished upon you by the understanding woman in whose honor May 11 has been set aside. She generously gave to you years of loving care and watchful guidance—in many more ways, perhaps, than you ever realized—and did this freely without ever looking for any word of thanks or hope of reward.

Nor does she expect any thanks or reward next Sunday. But isn't it almost certain that some token of remembrance from you on Mother's Day, a message or a gift, will bring her unlooked for happiness?

She will remember—on Mother's Day. Will you?

BEHIND THE SANDBAGS

The best defense is an aggressive offense. That has long been a military axiom. It can be applied with deadly parallel to our national fiscal policy. An army which burrows into the ground and does nothing but wait for the enemy, will, by all the rules of modern warfare, be beaten. Our fiscal policy is a policy of hiding behind the sandbags of evasion and ignorance.

Palliatives are advocated to stem the tide of "inflation". But there is no fearless offensive against the causes of inflation. Inflation such as is feared today, is merely a prelude to bankruptcy. It is the result of uncontrolled public spending. Only by controlling the cause can the effect be averted.

What this country needs is a full realization of the exact meaning of national bankruptcy. It means the end of representative government and the rights and savings of the individual—the very things we are arming to preserve. It might mean revolution. Bankrupt governments seldom pass out of the picture peacefully. It means actual physical danger and insecurity to every American family. This is the price of bankruptcy.

We are going to accumulate an unprecedented public debt. That is inevitable, due to defense costs. But in the name of common sense and for the sake of our children and our children's children, let's take the offensive against bureaucratic waste and pure political spending. Let's not be caught napping behind the sandbags of delusion.

A GOOD WILL PROGRAM

Latin America will not be the comparatively unknown place it is today if two proposals by Good Neighbor spokesmen are adopted: one, providing for the yearly exchange of some 5,000 students between the United States and Latin America, and the other, making the study of Spanish compulsory in our schools. Good neighbors who must work and cooperate with each other should also understand each other's history and aspirations as well. We need, not simply language books, but inter-American history texts, to further not only one nation indivisible but one hemisphere indivisible.

What this country seems to need most is concentration camps for chronic horn tooters.

My Place In The Sun

by DOUG BARRETT

The Roseville Tribune last week carried a pretty impressive front page editorial entitled, "Let's All Beware of Galloping Gadgeteers". In it was a lot of mighty good advice to consumers regarding itinerant peddlers who play like the Arab and fold their tents and steal away before the "thrifty" but gullible housewife discovers she has been duped but round royally. I might paraphrase the Trib's last paragraph slightly and say, "Be prepared for him. Shop in Truckee but not at your front door!"

I wonder how many of my readers have ever given much thought to the picture that hangs just over Tony's desk at the coffee shop? You know, it is probably one of the finest pieces of Truckeeiana in existence and would readily find its place in a museum or art gallery in any of California's major cities. It is a work of art but that is not the real interest behind it. It represents an era that is past forever and the six men in it all had their parts in that era. The scene is a hunting party at Horseshoe Bend in 1894 and contains half a dozen local pioneers. One is the artist, a very talented Frenchman named Charles LaFontaine, who painted under the name of Charles Koster. Standing in a characetristic pose with his hands deep in the pockets of a business suit it George Schaeffer, reputed to have been the richest man in Truckee. He made is original stake under a law that allowed a man to homestead 160 acres of land for each child—Schaeffer had 10 or 11—and supplied the railroad with fire wood, lumber and ties, as well as supplying Virginia City mines with timbers. In the picture with a luxuriant Van Dyke, is Frank Milosh, pioneer saloon man who went to Alaska at the time of the gold rush. Standing up is John Fay, for 24 years county supervisor from this district and one-time chairman of the board. Seated in the scene is Fred Irish, Schaeffer's 6-foot three son-in-law who was killed by an emory wheel at Schaeffer's Mill. Reclining in the foreground is Bill McDougall, a Scotch-Canadian, who was a popular saloon keeper here for many years prior to his death in 1909. My informant was so well acquainted with the picture that he knew the names of the dog and mare in it. Ponce, the spaniel, was killed by a switch engine but what ever became of Fanny, the horse, I don't know. Maybe Constable Bottcher just failed to tell me and will tell you if you ask him.

Sun Spots: Charlie Bander striding across the tracks with a black overcoat, black cigar and dark glasses looking for all the world like Yehudi headed for a picnic....a '39 Chevvy with a ripple finish on the fenders and radiator....little "Geronimo" Keck, lunch bucket in hand, schoolward walking....Larry McKelvey slithing down the street in his big green Lincoln....Mickey Holt bravely but vainly trying to beat old man solitare at the Capitol....nice messes of trout in the Sport Shop window....Chum Frank Titus up for angling from college.

Many Take Limits From Tahoe on Opening Day

TAHOE CITY, May 8.— Fishing season in Lake Tahoe, the Truckee River and its tributaries opened here on May 1 with many record catches.

Among those brining in limits out of the lake opening day were Marshall Lowell and party of Auburn, W. H. McClish and H. Aywalt of Grass Valley, all of whom were guests at Tahoe Inn.

Largest single catch reported here from the Truckee was a 5½ pound trout.

As the outlet gates at the Truckee River Dam, only outlet of Lake Tahoe watre, are still closed, huge schools of ative trout, rainbow, loch leven and eastern brook are still congregated around the dam gates, proving a major asset as an interest to crowds of tourists who vainly wish that some of the yard long beauties would swim down stream and take their hook. It is a daily occurrence to see groups feeding the hefty fish.

California Repulic Celebration Scheduled

by DOUG MONTELL

Corning—"cradle of the California Republic"—will relive the days when the Bear Flag was flown in this state back in 1846 by staging a mammoth three-day Olive Jamboree and Days of '49 celebration May 15-16-17 according to Harold R. Deal, manager of advertising and sales promotion for the Tide Water Associated Oil Company.

Deal, who as chairman of the oil committee of the Western States Promotion Council, is active in stimulating interest in the council's theme of "See the Old West this Year", makes an enthusiastic report upon the extensive preparations now being made by Corningites for the impending revival of the days of the old west.

"Whenever the California Republic is spoken of and the Bear Flag is brought to mind, the average Californian at once thinks of Sonoma," Deal declared. "While it is true that it was at Sonoma that the first actual raising of the Bear Flag of the California Republic took place in 1846, research reveals that it was earlier that year in the historic Moon House near Corning that the first meeting of pioneer settlers took place. Here plans were formulated which led to the subsequent revolt avainst Mexican rule and the establishment of the California Republic under the Bear Flag at Sonoma."

Corning Whiskerinos, in their preparations for the largest three-day celebration in the town's history, has established headquarters for the chapter in a "hangout" named "Bear Flag." The community is already transformed into a rip-roaring settlement of earliest pioneer days, Deal reports. Staid and dignified citizens of the olive town, men and women alike, are already so actively reliving the days of '49 that the Whiskerino Jail on the main street frequently becomes the lodgings of any who fail to conform with the frontier spirit. Motorist not forewarned, suddenly find themselves into an early California pioneer settlement when traveling US 99-W these days.

"The Corning Olive Jamboree and Days of '49 celebration May 15-17 truly reflects the spirit of the Old West which the Western States Promotion Council is seeking to preserve and the three-day event should attract a record breaking attendance from all parts of California", Deal concluded.

If all the cars in traffic handled by Southern Pacific Railroad last week were placed end to end, they would make one cotinuous train from San Francisco to Los Angeles.

ALL STARS NOT FROM HEAVEN
HOLLYWOOD DIRECTOR FINDS

Can't Marry

Pretty Kay Maurer of San Francisco can't marry for "at least two years," a promise she made when accepting Red Cross position at Ft. Richardson, Anchorage, Alaska, for which she will embark from Seattle on May 2.

..In great matters men show themselves as they wish to be seen; in small matters as they are.—Gamaliel Bradford.

Hollywood is a fine place—to be forgotten in. That is, unless John Ford likes the way you act. For Director Ford has a habit of making the fans remember the players Hollywood forgot.

Take John Wayne for instance. Wayne, one of the stars of Ford's Argonsy production "The Long Voyage Home", playing at the Donner Theater on May 13, started his screen career as the star of "The Big Trail". Then he was relegated to Westerns until Ford, who saw him first, pun him in "Stagecoach" and made a new star of him. Jane Darwell was well-nigh forgotten when Ford cast her as "Ma Joad" in "The Grapes of Wrath."

Then there is Ward Bond. Bond, ex-college football hero, has been playing undistinguished bits around town for several years. Ford, who has great confidence in him, cast him as "Yank" in "The Long Voyage Home".

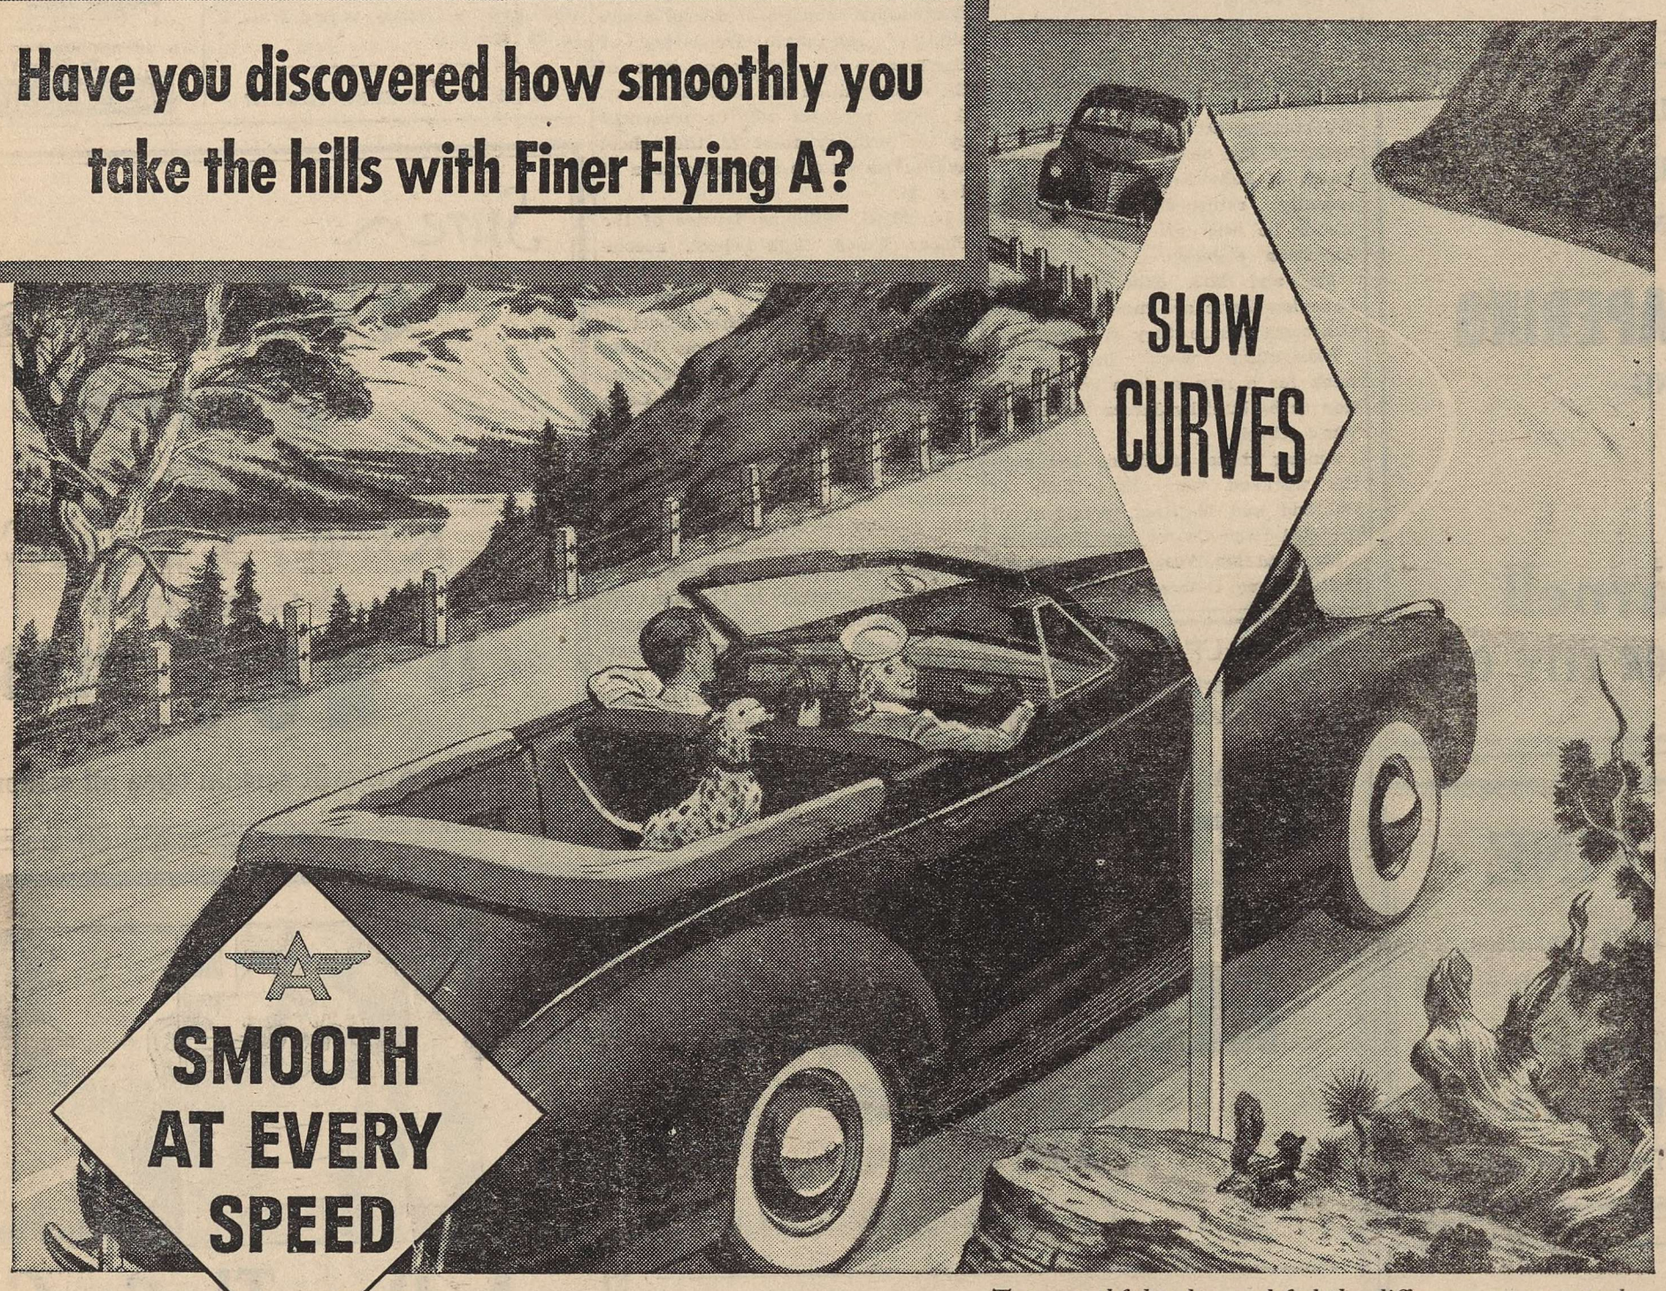
After Thomas Mitchell made such a hit in "The Hurricane" he might well have joined the ranks of the forgotten, if Ford hadn't given him the character of Doc Boone in "Stagecoach". He had been idle for 18 months. "Stagecoach" won him the 1939 Acadmey award and also won him another rich part in "The Long Voyage Home."

If one asks John Qualen why he is in demand right now, his answer will be "John Ford". For it was Ford who directed him in one of the finest scenes of the year in "Grapes of Wrath." The list of players Ford refuses to let the world forget is a long one. And so is the list of stars he has made.

Ask Spencer Tracy what put him where he is on the screen. He'll say it was his performance in "Up The River", directed by Ford. John Gilbert made his first hit under Ford's guidance in "Cameo Kirby." Geogre O'Brien was a stunt man when Ford starred him in "The Iron Horse." He's been doing all right ever since. Victor McLaglen owes his place at the top to "The Informer", a Ford production.

It is easy why players like to work in Ford pictures. They know they'll be remembered for a long, long time.

Have you discovered how smoothly you take the hills with Finer Flying A?



Try a tankful today and feel the difference at any speed

"Slow down," warns one sign. "Speed up," says the next. 25 miles an hour, 45, 10, 15. Slow, fast, slow again. Changing speed limits wherever you go. And at some of these varying speeds, some motors fail to respond with ordinary gasoline. And all motors are different. One motor balks at 10 miles an hour, but works OK at higher speeds. Some motors cough and hesitate only on the hills. Another motor chatters at 45. But now the problem is solved. You can have a motor smooth at every speed.

Use 7 gasolines in one. Seven proved fuels scientifically blended to give you smoothness at every speed. Polymerized gasoline is in there. Cracked is another. Alkylated, Solvent-refined, Re-formed, Natural and Straight-run make the seven gasolines in Finer Flying A.

Try a tankful of this new blend of gasolines today. Discover how smoothly you ride through the changing traffic zones and over the hills with Finer Flying A. Go fast. Go slow. Go fast again—smooth at every speed.

THE PARTNERS GROW COLD

The always lukewarm partnership between Russia and Germany, now grown chilly, shows a rapidly mounting uneasiness in Soviet councils. The ban on the shipment of war materials across Soviet Russia, the concern over landing of German troops in Finland, the thunderous May Day warning to the Red Army to keep its powder dry, manifests the growing lack of faith in the country's former policy—to keep itself an island of peace though surrounded by hostile powers. Today the whole of Russia's Europea frontier from Finland to the Dardanelles lies in the hands of her most feared enemy. Russia herself has woven this chain of hostile might along her borders; this menace to her safety is the price she has paid for her do-nothing policy. That price will not be too high if Gemany ultimately comes to defeat, but the price will be the defeat or dismemberment of Russia if Germany is victorious. Dictator Stalin has preferred to take the perilous chance.

MONROE REVISES

Foreign Minister Matsuoka, back in Tokyo with his paper peace pact, want to match his settlement with Russia with a somewhat similar agreement with the United States. Mr. Matsuoka may, in fact, come to Washington with that end in view, according to reports fros Tokyo. But the very real stumbling block to any such understanding remains visible as ever. Japan is still possessed with the notion that he divine destiny requires her to extend her conquests into the East Indies, Burma, China, Siam and India. This military overlordship of the Far East is clearly implied in the words of Mr. Matsuoka, "I want to ask you to respect Japan's Monroe Doctrine of the East just as we respect America's Monroe Doctrine of the West." The words are misleading. America's Monroe Doctrine has never infringed on any country's right to trade fully and freely with any nation in this hemisphere, and it is devoted to upholding the sovereignty of all Western hemisphere nations against aggression. But if Japan really means to interpret her "Monroe Doctrine" in this manner, no nation will be better pleased than the United States. We, too, seek peace.

LAND BATTLE FOR AN OCEAN

The blitzkreig, having swept the Balkans, is soon due to blaze a trail through North Africa, Spain, Syria and Palestine in a drive against the Suez Canal, Gibraltar, and British naval bases in the Mediterranean. These are the current reports in London, which add that Hitler has boasted his conquets of "Mare Nostrum" will be complete by August 1. The battle for the control of the Mediterranean will not be a battle between Nazi air forces and British men-o'-war—directly. As Nazi naval power is week, Germany's aim will doubtless be to destroy or capture vital sea ports and naval bases with her armies and air force. A land power, capable of seizing its opponent's seaports, can destroy the value of the opponent's superior sea power. It is worth remembering that the Romans long held control of the Mediterranean—without a navy. Sea commerce was safe and unmolested because the Roman land forces held control of the seaports. The coming struggle for the control of the Mediterranean appears due to be decided on land.

AMERICA'S WORK SHEET

Rep. Vinson's proposed Federal mediation legislation has come out of committee none too soon. The nation cannot afford to squander time and manpower needlessly in the face of the gigantic work order confronting it. The dimensions of that task have just been given by OPM officials. By the end of 1941, they say, "America's monthly production of power must, and will, again be trebled. Monthly output of military planes must and will be doubled, tank production quadrupled, small arms ammunition trebled, rifle production doubled, and machine gun production increased five-fold." There's the job. We have men, resources, material. Let's have the teamwork.

The second largest gambling casino in the world—only Monte Carlo's was bigger—used to occupy the corner of Fourth and Market in San Francisco, where an office building now stands.

The world's largest tungsten mill will soon be in operation on Pine Creek west of Bishop.

Present West Coast lumber production operations are the highest for the industry since 1930, and exceed calculated capacity.

"Adam and Fallen Man" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday, May 11, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Golden Text will be: "If by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:17). Other Bible citations will include. "Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life" (I John 2:24,25)

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: " 'As in Adam [error] all die, even so in Christ [truth] shall all be made alive'. The mortality of man is a myth, for man is immortal.... The great truth in the science of being, that the real man was, is, and ever shall be perfect, is incontrovertible; for if man is the image, reflection, of God, he is neither inverted nor subverted, but upright and Godlike" (pp. 545, 200).

Builder

Another kind of dollar-a-year man is Henry J. Kaiser, key figure in Pacific Coast defense work. Kaiser is building a $12,000,000 magnesium plant at Permanente, Calif., owns the new Todd-California Shipbuilding Co. in Richmond, Calif., and has just announced plans for another shipbuilding company at Richmond. He expects personal profit taxes will wipe out his earnings in these enterprises. "But I am here to build", he told an Oakland newspaper in his only interview.

Many Attend Open House At School at Kings Beach

by MADELINE GALLERANI

KINGS BEACH, May 8.— Open House at the Kings Beach School on Friday, May 2, drew a large crowd of parents and friends.

Geraldine Rice acted as doorman, while Irene Gallerani was hat check girl and Betty Mae Hall guide. The three girls were attired in costumes consisting of blue and white trousers, red and white jackets and red majorette hats with white pom-poms which tended to make a very attractive picture.

The different and colorful exhibits and hobbies proved very interesting to the visitors.

The 25th consecutive "broadcast" of station KBS got underway at 1 P. M. with Miss Hall acting as mistress of ceremonies.

The singing of "America" and the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Ray Sorenson. The program opened with the entire class singing "How Do You Do?" Irene Gallerani sang "The Ferry Boat Serenade". A skit entitled "Memories" was presented with Norma Peterson, Robert Appleby, Billy Peterson, Barbara O'Brien, Jim and Richard Astle, Betty Mae Hall, Geraldine Rice, Norman King and Irene Gallerani. The class sang "God Bless America". A clever tap dance was performed by Norma Peterson to "Swanee River". "In My Merry Oldsmobile" was acted out by Ray Sorenson and Robert Astle with Irene Gallerani doing the vocal. A repeat performance of "Strawberry Blonde" was given by the children complying with many requests. All of the boys did an Indian dance with "Chief" (Billy Peterson) and the two Indian maids (Norma Peterson and Irene Gallerani) suitably attired. Geraldine Rice lead a "Soldiers March" around the room with Betty Mae Hall and Irene Gallerani singing "I Am An American". Dr. I. Q. (Richard Astle) and the "Quiz Kids" (Irene Gallerani, Billy Peterson, Geraldine Rice and Robert Appleby) made their appearance. "Bicycle Built For Two" enacted by Jim Astle and Barbara O'Brien with Irene Gallerani assisting with the vocal.
